

Solution for SMBs in the transport and logistics industry planned CeBIT 2004: itelligence AG and Soloplan GmbH agree cooperation

Frankfurt, March 23, 2004 - itelligence AG, the German IT consultancy in the SAP environment, and Soloplan, the Kempten-based logistics software specialist will today announce their marketing cooperation for the CarLo® program developed by Soloplan. The purpose of the partnership is to jointly develop and market a new vertical solution based on mySAP All-in-One under the name of it.transportation.

The cooperation between software specialist Soloplan and SAP consultancy itelligence will offer the transport and logistics industry a new efficient solution for transport planning and freight cost settlement benefiting from the industry-specific settings of a genuine mySAP All-in-One solution. The integrated solution enables optimized introduction processes and greatly reduced introduction times.

The marketing cooperation will initially be launched in Germany, with an expansion to Austria planned at a later date.

“The combined solution offers small and medium-sized businesses a tried-and-tested, user-friendly system that covers all requirements, from acquisition to handling and transport to reporting within the SAP process,” says Kirsten Bruns, Manager Line of Business Service Provider.
