

itelligence AG donates EUR 50,000 to the victims of the earthquake in Japan

Bielefeld, March 31, 2011 – itelligence AG supports the “OWL Helps Japan” initiative of the Bielefeld German-Japanese Society, and has donated EUR 50,000.

Norbert Rotter, CFO of itelligence AG: “The earthquake in Japan was a terrible natural disaster of an extraordinary magnitude, and we want to express our support to the people there with this donation. We have built up close personal relationships with our colleagues at NTT DATA in Japan over the past few years, which heightens our sadness at the fate of the people in the north of the country. Those who need help there are the relatives or friends of colleagues. We are donating this money to the 'OWL Helps Japan' initiative as a sign of our solidarity.”
