ITELLIGENCE U.S. RECOGNIZED AS SAP AMERICA'S TOP-PRODUCING U.S. SMB BUSINESS PARTNER

Chicago, Illinois, February 10, 2004 - SAP America, Inc., recognized itelligence U.S. as the "Top Producing" U.S. Small and Midsize Business (SMB) Partner. The award, which is based upon 2003 revenue performance, recognized itelligence's success in meeting its performance and business objectives during 2003.

itelligence received the award at the 2004 SAP® North America Field Kickoff Meeting (Jan. 19-23), SAP's annual event which sets business and marketing strategy for its sales executives and business partners for the upcoming year.

As SAP's leading U.S. revenue-producing business partner for the SAP SMB and mySAP™ All-in-One initiative, itelligence continues its success as one of SAP's largest SMB Business Partners in the U.S. and worldwide.

itelligence also received recognition for outstanding account executives in the SAP SMB Reseller Channel. Awards were given to Phillip McKee, Mike Dunn and Nick Albino for their ability to meet sales objectives set forth by SAP and itelligence. Additionally, the "Marketing Leadership Award" was given to itelligence marketing director Rose Finnegan for her team's outstanding contribution to U.S. SMB Marketing in 2003.

"These awards showcase the strong partnership between itelligence and SAP and a mutual commitment to success in the SMB market," said Gary Fromer, senior vice president, SMB and Hosting, SAP America. "We look forward to continuing strong momentum in 2004."

“We are pleased to accept these awards, as it underscores our collective commitment to bringing the power of SAP solutions to the SMB market,” said Steve Niesman, itelligence president and CEO. “We congratulate our employees on a terrific year and look forward to extending this leadership position in 2004.”
